

Adobe Illustrator

Selection: Selects objects
 Hand: Drags artboard in widow
 Pen: Draws straight lines & curves
 Brush: Paints freehand & calligraphy paths
 Oval: Draws ovals and circles
 Measure: Measures the distance between 2 points
 Rotate: Rotates Objects
 Reflect: Reflects objects across an axis
 Paint bucket: Fills with selected paint attributes
 Gradient: Adjusts angle an length of gradients
 Graph: Creates graphs

Direct-selection: Selects parts of objects
 Zoom: Magnifies or reduces view
 Scissors: Splits paths
 Freehand: Draws freehand lines
 Rectangle: Draws rectangles and squares
 Type: Creates text
 Scale: Scales objects
 Shear: Skews objects
 Eyedropper: Samples paint attributes
 Blend: Blends two objects
 Page: Adjusts page grid

The following buttons are associated with the above buttons:

*  Group-selection: Selects objects within groups

  Add-anchor-point: Adds anchor points  Delete-anchor-point: Deletes anchor point  Convert-direction-point: Converts points between smooth and corner

  Autotrace: Traces template shapes

*  Rectangle: Draws rectangles & squares with rounded edges

  Area-type: Creates text inside an area  Path-type: Creates text along a path

Move a selection	Use the arrow keys on the keyboard
Lock unselected objects	Command, Option, #1
Hide unselected objects	Command, Option, #3
Set view to 100%	Double-click the Zoom button
Fit artwork in window	Double-click the Hand button
Draw marquee from center	Control-drag the Zoom button
Adjust marquee position	Drag Zoom button, then press spacebar and drag
Constrain lines to 45, 90, 135, or 180 degrees	Click the Pen button and hold down the Shift key
Use the Eraser	Click the Freehand button, Command, drag over path to erase
Copy paint attributes to selected object	Click the Eyedropper button, double-click unselected object